Although similar in detail costs at Gulfview will be slightly higher than in Pearlington due to the nature of the work involved. Pearlington's school will be entirely new while Gulfview's construction will involve some renovation and alteration of existing structure.

Program dates called for the bond issue to go before the electorate on May 1, then immediate construction bid advertising could be undertaken a building started by Aug. 1.

Lott names two new appointees

Addition of one assistant veterans' service officer and appointment of a new seawall foreman were the only changes in appointees voted by the board of supervisors Monday as Jack Lott took office for the re- [illegible]ng unexpired ter[illegible] of the [illegible]mes A. Necais[illegible] Beat 4 supervisor.

Lott nominated Welton Ladner as assistant veteran's officer at the close of the session, with H.G. Dean of Beat 1 seconding. Pay was fixed at $100 a month. R.G. Hubbard, jr., board president, commented there had been a vacancy for about a year when Cornelius J. Ladner was removed.

Sidney Bennett was named to succeed C.W. Olsen as seawall foreman as supervisors named for the remainder of the year other January nominees. Final action had been withheld pending election of Necaise's successor.

When the appointments were taken up near the close of the day-long session, Hubbard challenged the designation by Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner, jr., of Tommy Bourgeois as prison guard. At least a portion of the dispute appeared to stem from Clerk Marie Quintini's effort to secure prisoners to help with county records being cleared out on a contract with Tom L. Ketchings Co., Inc.

While personal complaints were tossed about Hubbard said Bourgeois and Bay Police Chief Lathon Garriga had searched without a warrant the Shoreline Park home of Emmett Ellis. The sheriff called to have the two appear before the supervisors and they disputed such an illegal search.

The sheriff complained that no complaints have been raised against the previous administration when word of Hancock County's speed law enforcement had appeared in national publications. He suggested Hubbard was as aware of those facts and had made no complaint. Hubbard replied he could do nothing on that.

Supvrs. set one mill for Pearl River

The board of supervisors Monday set April 30 at 9 a.m. as the date for opening bids on an estimated $30,000 worth of equipment for the 24-bed addition at Hancock General Hospital, unanimously expressed its intent to levy one mill this fall to raise $85,000 as Hancock's share of Pearl River Junior College's expansion program, and scheduled a conference for 9:30 a.m. Friday with Capt. William Fortune, manager of Mississippi Test Operations, on the future of the MTO security patrol.

A letter from Captain Fortune was read thanking the board for its assistance in providing the security patrol for MTO during its first two years of operation and at the suggestion of Supervisor Dolph Kellar of Beat 2 was made a part of the minutes. The government did not renew its contract for the service this year and General Electric Co., housekeeping contractor at MTO, awarded the job to a Jackson detective firm.

Insurance on the patrol's two pick-up trucks and one automobile and bonds for the nine patrolmen came due and the board tabled that matter in the hope something can be worked out at Friday's confab with Fortune. The vehicles are to be stored for the time being. It was estimated the county made about $3,000 on the service over the two years ending March 31.

In another MTO associated topic, supervisors considered seawall fund revenue based on the gasoline tax, noting the volume had not climbed when two cents was cut from the tax a year ago. H.G. Dean of Beat 1 remarked it didn't make sense to him when "this is the second biggest construction job in the nation today and we don't have any increase in our gas sales." R.G. Hubbard, jr., of Beat 5 commented "there's some finagling going on in Jackson but I haven't been able to put my finger on it yet."

B.L. Broome, district engineer for the state aid road program, wrote commending the supervisors on the whole for their road maintenance. He found two exceptions, both on the Kiln-Picayune Highway in Beat 4, and directed a 2.7 mile strip there, completed in 1954, he resealed this summer with state aid funds.

County Engineer George W. Wier appeared and informed the board he was ready to start work again on the federal road re-location projects under the contract with the Corps of Engineers. He was to meet with Charles Lavinghouse in Beat

School bonds receive nod

Saturday, May 1, was fixed as the date for vote on the county school board's $350,000 proposed bond issue, when the board of supervisors received the school resolution Monday.

This is the county system's second try at financing a new school at Pearlington to replace the Logtown Center which must make way for NASA's MTO buffer zone; expansion at Gulfview School in Lakeshore and provision for an industrial arts department, more athletic facilities and a bus stop at Hancock North Central School. A A $375,000 bond issue last May fell 54 votes short of the required 60 per cent approval.

The new issue, somewhat whittled down from the first in an effort to make funds match costs, calls for $132,000 to be expended at Pearlington, $162,000 at Gulfview and $55,000 at HNC.

H.G. Dean, Beat 1 supervisor, moved for approval of the necessary resolutions as presented by W.J. Phillips, school board attorney, and Charles Lavinghouse of Beat 3 seconded.

Vote on the proposal was 4-1 with R.G. Hubbard of Beat 5, board president, dissenting on the ground the bond issue did not take note of at least $135,000 the county system hoped to receive from the federal government for acquisition of the Logtown plant.

Hubbard endeavored to stall the decision until he could talk with the attorney general's office on the details but his colleagues indicated they were ready for a vote. It appeared that a 50-minute caucus behind closed doors of the supervisors and the school board attorney before the meeting opened was devoted to a discussion of the proposition.

In the open meeting Phillips assured Hubbard that proper use of the bond money was assured by resolution of the school board to place proceeds from the Logtown sale in the bond sinking fund and rulings of the attorney-general to that end. Phillips conceded that the formula might not be the best

City Police investigate two mishaps

Joe Lewis, Bay St. Louis Negro, was jailed late Sunday afternoon after ramming his own car being driven by his wise, at the intersection of Main Street and Dunbar Avenue.

Lewis, looking for his wife was driving his father's car when the vehicles collided. He then pulled her from the automobile and began to beat her.

Mothers to patrol school crossings

Waveland Town Council Tuesday night asked Mayor Garfield Ladner to explore the possibility of deputizing several mothers to control traffic at Waveland's two schools at the start and close of the school day.

Alderman John Longo first proposed using the town's two policemen for this purpose, saying that motorists frequently failed to observe the 15 mph limit in front of Waveland School and St. Clare's Parish School. Since this would restrict the officers' activity and might unduly burden them, particularly when they had worked late at night, the alternate proposal was adopted.

The aldermen also approved the mayor's appointment of four more auxiliary policemen, bringing the total to ten. Those named were: Sidney Bourgeois,

Pay raise possible for county teachers

Teachers in the Hancock County school system may get up to $400 more in 1965-66 if the county school board can get its millage raised the two more mills to the limit provided by state law.

On the recommendation of board president Bl. P. Ortte, trustees Monday approved a motion by Lugis Necaise to that effect. The millage is set in September by the board of supervisors.

"Everybody knows our teachers need more money," said Ortte, "and we will have to pay more to attract the better teachers to come here and to encourage those we have to stay on in our system."

Chester H. Bialock, recently appointed Hancock North Central superintendent, presented a table of comparison to the trustees, all of whom were present.

Smith schedules US 90 surfacing

Bids will be opened April 27 for construction of concrete two-lane road from the intersection of Route 43 and U.S. 90 to the scales, according to Southern District Highway Commissioner John D. Smith.

The 5.5 mile stretch will roughly follow old U.S. 90 and on completion will be the west bound lane of U.S. 90 with the present road constituting the east bound lane.

Smith said construction of this unit should be completed in less than a year. At the same time the commissioner said next spring he expects to start a connecting two-lane stretch between the scales and the present four-lane approach to Bay St. Louis bridge. He estimated construction time for this section at two or more years.

The commissioner had been contacted by phone Monday night from a general membership meeting of Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. Shortly before phoning Smith those present had endorsed the chamber board's [illegible] of March 15, which sought simultaneous construction of the two sections.

Crime ring loot found

The mystery of the huge 68-foot house trailer parked in the rear of Hancock County courthouse for over a week, was solved by Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner, jr., on Wednesday, when he revealed that two persons had been charged and warrants issued for the arrest of three others on charges of burglary. The trailer had been used to store the loot.

A call from Laurel on Saturday, March 27, informed the Sheriff that Wayne Booth, 19, and Robert Kearney, 18, both both claiming to be from the Bay St. Louis area had been arrested in connection with unlawful entry of a Laurel restaurant and charged with burglary and possession of burglary tools. Further the Sheriff learned that Johnnie D. Booth, alias John Ville, 38, wanted in connection with the same insident had escaped capture. He was subsequently arrested in New Orleans and held for Laurel officers.

Upon learning that Booth resided in Dean's Trailer Park, U.S. 90, east of Pearlington, Sheriff Ladner, Chief Deputy Eldo Depreo and Deputy Chester Favre went to the trailer concerned and questioned Mrs.

A dog is a dog

We have read reams of editorials during recent weeks deploring the effort to repeal the right-to-work provision of the Taft-Hartley law.

These have included numerous germane facts, such as:

Unions have continued to grow even in states which have availed themselves of Section 14-B of Taft-Hartley and made it illegal to require union membership before a man can get a job; or unemployment rate in 1962 was 4.6 per cent in right-to-work states as compared to 5.6 per cent in others.

A main point to us is the change in the unions' position, and admittedly unions and management have changed positions over the past years. The abomination of the union man in past days was the "yellow dog contract", whereby to get a job a man had to agree not to join a union. These "yellow dog contracts" have been made illegal.

Now union management wants its own form of yellow dog contract---one that provides a man with a job only if he joins the union.

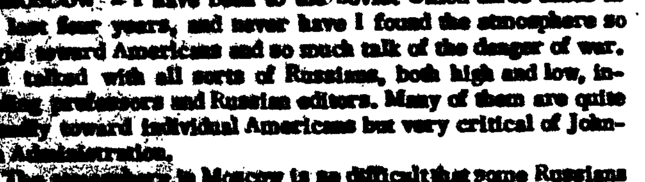
Merry-Go-Round



By Drew Pearson

MOSCOW — I have been to the Soviet Union three times in the last four years, and never have I found the atmosphere so frigid toward Americans and so much talk of the danger of war.

I talked with all sorts of Russians, both high and low, including professors and Russian editors. Many of them are quite friendly toward individual Americans but very critical of Johnson Administration.

The atmosphere in Moscow is so difficult that some Russians cannot be seen too much with Americans without risking their jobs. In the old days of Joe McCarthy, U.S. State Department officials risked their jobs if they favored coexistence. Now this is true in Moscow.

In contrast, only a short time ago Americans were considered among the best friends of the Soviet Union, and there was very real cooperation in health, science, education and agriculture.

The reasons for the sudden change are relatively simple but very important. They are:

1. Khrushchev followed a policy of pro-Americanism. One of the charges leveled against him was that he was too soft toward the United States. His successors, while following the same line of coexistence, don't want to be branded as pro-American.

2. The bombing of North Viet Nam has seriously embarrassed the Russians with their chief communist critics, the Chinese. For years the Chinese have been telling the Russians that coexistence won't work, that you can't trust the imperialist Americans. Now, with our bombing of North Viet Nam, the Chinese are saying, "We told you so. Americans are picking on a tiny country which is of no danger to them. Once again we remind you that coexistence will not work."

War with China??

The alternative to coexistence is, of course, war, and Mao Tse-tung has said publicly that China is the only country in the world which can withstand a nuclear war and still have 300 million people left.

As of today, the Chinese do not want war. They have nothing in their atomic arsenal comparable to ours. But the time will come three or four years hence when they will have. The Russians know this better than we do, and that's one reason the Russians in the past have leaned toward the United States.

They figure the day will come when these two powerful countries, even though one is capitalist and the other communist, will be bound together by the threat of an aggressive, militant yellow race.

All this pro-American policy advanced by Khrushchev and those immediately around him has now been knocked to the ground, chiefly by our bombing of North Viet Nam.

Note—Top dog in the Kremlin is now Mikhail Suslov, an old Stalinist and bitter enemy of the United States, who is the man who led the purge of Khrushchev.

American gas boomerangs

The use of riot gas in Viet Nam has boomeranged badly against the United States. The reaction was compounded by Secretary of State Rusk's bureaucratic recital of the circumstances under which we used the gas. In Europe his statement was compared with Eisenhower's poorly conceived, poorly timed statement taking responsibility for the U-2 flight over Russia in 1960.

Unfortunately, many European readers note the headlines, not the statement. And in Europe ever since World War I, the use of gas has been considered inhumane, no matter whether lethal or nonlethal.

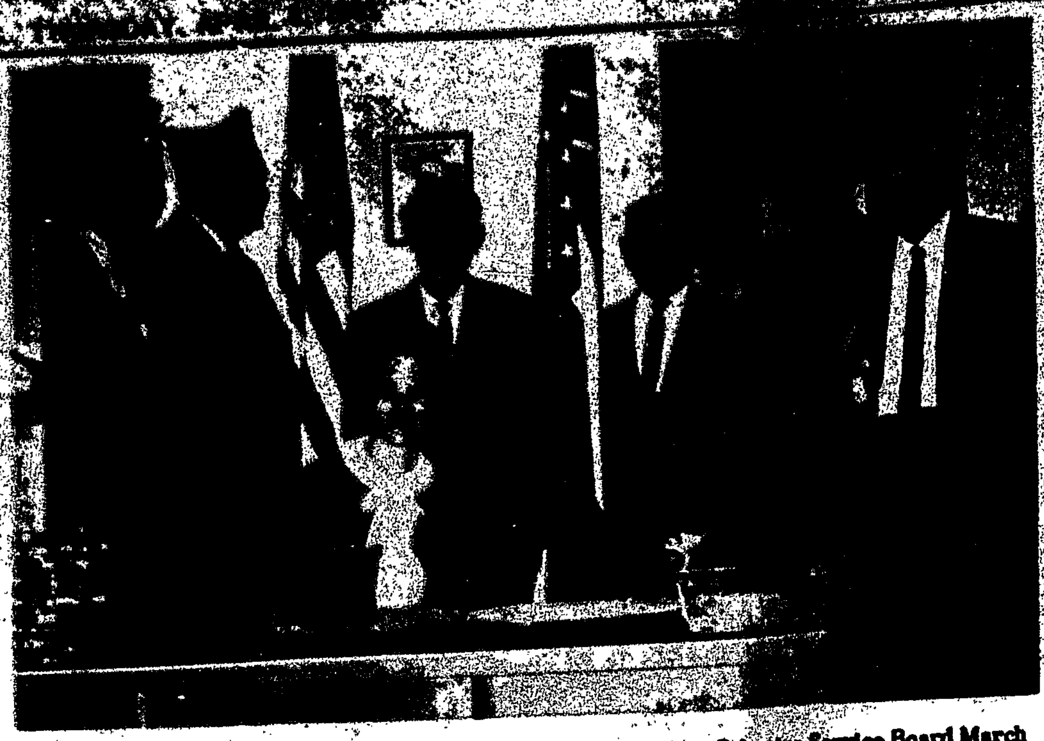
Furthermore, Rusk's statement detailing our use of gas in various riots only reminded Europeans that we had had serious problems in Harlem, Alabama, Mississippi and elsewhere.

Mrs. Pearson, talking to various Russians, pointed out that when she walks on the streets of Washington at night she carries a small gas gun in her evening bag. Some Cabinet wives do the same. Life in the nation's capital is not as safe as in many European cities.

LBJ will stay home

You can write it down that President Johnson will not go to Moscow any time in 1965. The present tension is not conducive to good will visits. Furthermore, it will take some time for the scars of the North Viet Nam bombing to heal.

Nor will Brezhnev and Kosygin be invited to Washington. President Johnson did give them an oral invitation, but nothing was ever formalized and Mr. B. and Mr. K. are not anxious to come.



FLAG PRESENTATIONS — Two flags are presented to Selective Service Board March 31—American Flag is given by American Legion and Mississippi State Flag by Joseph Zengarling in memory of his wife, Agnes. Attending ceremony are from left, Gilbert Gayaut and Joseph Benvenutti, representing Legion, Joseph Zengarling, E. J. Arceneaux, board chairman; Col. C.S. Sanders, deputy state director; Eugene Davis, board member; and seated Mrs. Joyce Ladner, clerk. Mrs. Zengarling was board clerk for many years.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

We are writing you in regards to an article in the Sea Coast Echo, Thursday April 1, 1965, the article headed U. S. 90 Petition – Smith Answers, in which you referred to Mr. Smith's letter to the petitioners as follows – Quote, "Replying to the Petitioners Smith said, the decision following the plan advanced by the two Chambers of Commerce would give the people the are of a much longer length at a much shorter length of time," unquote.

Mr. John D. Smith's letter to the petitioners at no time mentioned either Chambers of Commerce, therefore we feel this is a grossly exaggerated error. We feel that this disillusion was brought about by your zeal to champion the cause of a few directors of the Chamber of Commerce – We forgive you.

In order to correct your error, we, the petitioners request that you publish the enclosed letter from Mr. John D. Smith to the petitioners.

JOHN A. BRELAND

Dear Mr. Breland:

I received your letter and petition concerning road construction on Highway 90 in Hancock County. At the time I received your petition, a decision had already been made to build the link from the intersection of Highway 43 to the scales. This would give the people the use of a much longer link at a much shorter length of time.

I regret that I did not know at the time the decision was made that there was any opposition to this procedure.

It will be our plans to 4-lane the link from the scales to the present 4-lane at the earliest possible date.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
JOHN D. SMITH

Council directed Clerk C.O. Dufour to again write Louisville and Nashville Railroad advising of possible court action unless it cleans the ditch on its right-of-way north of the railroad's tracks between Coleman Avenue and Nicholson Avenue. No reply had been received to a similar request mailed March 5. At the request of Mrs. W. P. Ducomb permission was given Hancock County Art League to conduct classes for Waveland residents on the second floor of Town Hall.

St. Clare's confirms class of 57

Forty-nine children and eight adults were confirmed into the Roman Catholic faith by Bishop Joseph Brunini of the Natchez-Jackson Diocese during the 9 a.m. mass Sunday at St. Clare's Church, Waveland. It was the first confirmation class in five years at the church.

Assisting the bishop with the service were Revs. Kevin Bambrick and Joseph Tuite of St. Clare's, Msgr. James J. Hannon of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish and priests from St. Augustine Seminary.

Adults in the class were Henry Bacharach, Joseph Carco, Phillip Ferguson, William Culbreth, Lonnie Schutz, Mrs. Henry Develle, Mrs. Louis Bourgeois and Miss Bonnie Lee Park.

Referring to the chart Blalock explained how teachers currently received most of their income from the state and that county funds simply supplemented this amount.

"A teacher with an A certificate and six years experience receives $3,900 from state sources," said Blalock, "and an administrator with an AA certificate $4,200."

Hancock supplements these income figures to the extent of $100, the lowest in the area. Jackson County, the next lowest gives $400, Long Beach, $500, Harrison County $55 and the city of Bay St. Louis $600.

County Superintendent Robert F. Ladner added that dependent on certification and teaching experience some sort of fixed scale with a maximum and minimum supplement ought to be established for Hancock County.

Approximately 34 classroom teachers will be affected in the proposed increases.

A new elementary principal and two new high school teachers at Hancock North Central were approved by the board.

Leonard Eugene Fuller, now elementary principal at St. Martin School in Jackson County, was named principal succeeding Arthur Necaise who has resigned and will confine his duties next year to transportation supervisor and driver education instructor. Fuller's pay will be the same as the other elementary principals.

[illegible] Robinson, 33, and Mrs. [illegible] Booth, 18, wife of Wayne Booth, [illegible] in occupancy.

[illegible] noted several articles in the trailer which were [illegible] stolen from the area and upon receiving permission from the women to search the trailer, found a large quantity of household articles reported as stolen. The loot included [illegible] electric coffee pots, [illegible] chairs, a number of [illegible] articles, sheets, silver, clothing, liquor and other items. Waveland Marshal Fred Bourgeois was called to examine the goods to see if any were from homes burglarized in the Waveland district in recent months.

The women stated that the articles were brought there by Booth, who they said had left several days earlier. Both were arrested and charged with having stolen goods in their possession and bond was set at $10,000 each pending preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Lester Hover Wednesday night. Mrs. Booth, who is pregnant was paroled for medical reasons; Mrs. Robinson was detained in jail.

Upon inquiry several residents in the vicinity of the trailer park reported burglaries in their homes, and two more have since issued similar complaints. They were Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Scarborough of Bay St. Louis, owners of a property known as Six Acres; Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Armbruster of Highway 90 and two summer residents, Mr. and Mrs. F.P. Pezold, jr. and Mrs. H. Hazelberger.

Sheriff Ladner and Deputy Depreo went to Laurel and questioned the youthful Booth and Kearney, obtaining statements that they had been involved in five burglaries in Louisiana, two in Hancock County and one in Harrison. Ladner and Depreo also interrogated the elder Booth after his apprehension in New Orleans and he too admitted involvement in the robberies. He is also wanted for investigation of burglary by Atlanta, Ga. police.

A large amount of loot from the trailer is still to be identified; an outboard motor and other items were sold in New Orleans by Booth.

Gas system...

lington and the PSC has issued a temporary order authorizing it to proceed and waiving the 30-day notice normally required on such applications.

Donnell Co., listing Denham Springs, La., as headquarters, is asking to serve Pearlington, Lakeshore and Clermont Harbor. The commission will set that case for hearing when it convenes May 4.

H.G. Dean, Beat 1 supervisor, asked the board to go on record urging the PSC to consider favorably the United application. R.G. Hubbard, jr., board president, cautioned that if Pearlington is to incorporate in a few years, ownership of its own natural gas system would be a valuable source of revenue. He noted that Waveland has been able to undertake many improvements with funds from the natural gas division.

A full week of projects was tackled by the more than 50 members of Valena C. Jones New Homemakers of America in conjunction with NHA week, April 4 - 10. This year also marked the 20th anniversary of the organization.

Project undertaken were: Sunday, a full attendance at church; Monday, bulletin board decoration; Tuesday, good-deed day; Wednesday, softball game; Thursday, assist Elementary School teachers with noontime games; Friday, assembly program with all members wearing the blue and white club colors; and Saturday, each member to sponsor a yard beautification project.

Under advisor Mrs. Don Hawthorne, officers of the organization are: Juanita Thompson, president, Marilyn Price, vice president; Barbara Hawkins, secretary; Willie May Haynes, assistant secretary; Jessie Price, treasurer; Annie Field, parliamentarian; Loretta Hargett, sgt.-at-arms; and Shirley James, reporter.

solution but argued for its support under the circumstances and Dean noted the Logtown plant is operating under a winter deadline from MTO.

The bond resolution earmarks $132,000 for Pearlington, $162,000 for Gulfview and $55,000 for North Central. This totals $359,000. Hubbard contended the bond issue gave the county school system $435,000 to spend while the documents provide only for $215,000. The latter sum does not include equipment.

3 on Tuesday. All this building in the county was halted on Wier's order last month.

Supervisors also heard at length from a delegation of U. S. 90 property owners protesting the Chamber of Commerce-endorsed plan to proceed with four-laning the highway from east of Main Street to Rt. 43. Hubbard agreed to take the matter up with Highway Commissioner John D. Smith. He told John A. Breland, principal spokesman, he knew no more why Smith had changed his mind from the plan announced last year than "the board knows what's going on in Viet Nam." Mrs. C.B. Georgi complained that four-laning 90 between Rt. 43 and the truck scales was easing an isolated strip and not where relief is needed for businesses.

In a generous frame of mind, supervisors voted $250 to the Chamber of Commerce earmarked for the Children's Center for the Retarded, $50 for an ad in the legal secretaries' program, and $50 in the state supervisors' program. All are to come out of the advertising fund. Payment was approved of $883 to the forestry commission for planting 75,000 pine seedlings on 83 acres in Sec. 16-7-15; $35,817 for the latest stage of work on the hospital addition, and a requisition of $11,804.76 to Necaise and Penton for the Dummy Line Road state aid job.

Streets in two new subdivisions were accepted—Riverside Drive, unit No. 1, off Blakemore Road, owned by John McDonald, and Lafitte Drive Estates of Dix Ashman. D'Iberville Place of Dantagnan Realty is due for acceptance next week after inspection.

This week's April [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] some of [illegible] [illegible]. It was really [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. We've already [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Anyway, our [illegible] brought about more comment than anything [illegible] [illegible].

Out of hibernation

[illegible] each [illegible] and around town. The first really spring weekend brought out summer people [illegible] including Kit and Eddie Carrere, Yvonne and Jack [illegible], Winnie and Jack [illegible], Lois and [illegible] Chase, Peggy and [illegible], Pat and John Gobren, Sylvia and John [illegible] and daughter Susan, Jackie and Clarence Hernig, [illegible] and [illegible] O'Neill, etc., etc.

Happy birthday wishes are on the way to Ray Sheringer who received a [illegible] from [illegible] who presented him with a [illegible] for his new home, on Sunday March 28, and also [illegible], baked a cake.

[illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Roseberry also gets greetings. She and Tom were [illegible] in the celebration by Gerry and Charles Johnson [illegible] April 2.

And we [illegible] with [illegible] to Ethel Gex, who [illegible] her [illegible] on Wednesday, March 31.

[illegible] and [illegible] are sporting one of the best looking new [illegible] seen in [illegible]. It's a lovely shade of aqua with black top.

[illegible] is busily [illegible] the story of the trip to Mexico from which she [illegible] recently returned. We hope to have the opportunity [illegible] when she's completed the job.

[illegible] and Wilfred Sheringer [illegible] to Jefferson Downs [illegible]. We won't mention where [illegible], the Sheringers [illegible] was [illegible] and they [illegible] back and take the long way home via Slidell.

Mid the City Hall confusion

What with the [illegible] flitting [illegible] all going [illegible] around City Hall, [illegible] we don't know [illegible]. Now that [illegible] Green has temporarily moved downstairs [illegible], someone pointed out that the range of [illegible] in the office is now complete from [illegible]'s [illegible] blonde, Pat [illegible]'s [illegible] brown, [illegible] to Mabel's silver tresses.

We finally got our first look at Julia and [illegible] Carson's adorable daughter Margaret whose [illegible] eyes and ringlets make her look like a [illegible] advertisement. Julia Ann and [illegible] were [illegible] and that pair of little [illegible] are both dolls.

[illegible] spent the weekend in [illegible] where she visited [illegible], better known as "Father".

Good news—Polly [illegible] was allowed to return home Friday night and although a bit weary from the trip, she says she's feeling fine.

Mrs. [illegible] returned home April 3 and is recuperating from successful surgery performed at Southern Foundation Hospital.

[illegible] and [illegible] drove to New Orleans Sunday where they visited son, J.D., wife, [illegible], and brand new daughter to be christened [illegible] Ann.

You smell it, we can't

[illegible] Wallace has the [illegible] of the season and is very proud of his new blooming [illegible]. Bonnie Wolfe and your reporter had finally convinced him that the plant was scentless—he's insisted it smelled like orange blossoms when [illegible] sniffed a blossom and said he could smell it. Either both have excellent imaginations or the flower has an odor only apparent to males!

Our good friend [illegible] Mrs. Charles [illegible] wrote for the first time in ages. She spent the weekend at her summer home when the [illegible] a couple of weeks ago and found the street near impassable.

Mrs. Ed [illegible] is another who is home again. She had surgery at Hancock General.

Lucky Bobbie (Mrs. Macrino—How about that for formality [illegible]?) Trelles left Tuesday for Santa Ana, Calif., where she'll attend the wedding of her godchild. She's visiting her (the godchild's, that is) parents, Maj. and Mrs. J.W. Ferris.

Jim Thomas-Hall reports that June and daughters are still having a great time in Nassau and he has quite a surprise for their return. He's modernizing and completely remodelling the kitchen.

Visiting in Waveland Sunday were Ethelynne and Johnny Martin of Algiers who spend their vacation here every summer. They are intimates of former residents Beverly and Bernie Donner and said that although the Donners now live in Shreveport they will be here for the usual two weeks.

[illegible]omanless [illegible]edding set [illegible]y auxiliary

[illegible] for the womanless [illegible] April 24 were outlined by Mrs. Frank Kiefer and Mrs. Charles Carter when the auxiliary of Hancock General Hospital met last Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Leo Seal.

Proceeds from the affair will go to furnish and decorate a chapel at the hospital. Tickets will be $1.50 for reserved seats; $1 general admission and 50 cents for children.

Thomas O. Logue, hospital administrator, reported on the progress of construction and explained that in the new addition the auxiliary may use two rooms—the chapel and a storage area.

Rev. Emory Green, pastor of First Baptist Church, gave the opening prayer and commended the auxiliary's work, citing particularly the teenage Candy Stripers.

Mrs. A.P. Smith served as hostess in the absence of Mrs. Seal. Members were reminded to mail their dues to Mrs. Joseph Viguerie.

Horace Olivier is another new resident to welcome. Horace, a retired Navy man, makes his home on Meadow Lane.

In case anybody wonders, the mob in Elwood Park Sunday was a group of CB's from all over. Some came from Pensacola, Mobile, New Orleans, etc.

Dining out Sunday were Barbara and Keith Colby and several small Colbys and Delores and Norton Haas, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Hutchinson have moved into their lovely new brick home.

Using hitches

Margaret Buckley wants to know if it would be alright to drop parking fines in the pipes remaining along the sidewalk giving the town a sort of old fashioned hitching post look where meters were removed??? The thought of local officers trying to retrieve the coins somehow appeals to our more fiendish sense of humor.

Incidentally, Margaret and Earl spent the weekend in Hattiesburg where they attended an Elks convention.

Bundles due

Marti (Mrs. John) Glover is on the hope you're feeling better list. Her baby, due next month, is threatening to arrive prematurely and her doctor has ordered her to spend most of the time in bed.

Speaking of expected babies, Johnnie Akers is all excited over the arrival of Penny and David Treutel's bundle from heaven slated to appear in a couple of months.

Mrs. M.B. Treadwell has returned to her home in Shreveport after visiting her daughter, Mildred, and husband, Jack Rutledge, and family at their Bay Royale apartment.

Charlie (Santa) Brown has asked us to explain that his name isn't so unusual that there isn't another around and that he hasn't 'cut nobody wit' nuthin'.

Another newcomer to welcome and another bachelor. George Hill who hails from Beaumont, Tex., is with Video Electric. George lives at the Texan Motel and he's most enthusiastic about the hospitality of owners, Dorothy and N.B. Miller. N.B. is a retired school principal and the Millers are also from the now second largest state.

Bay-Waveland wins blue in garden visits

Bay-Waveland Garden Club won a blue ribbon for its visiting gardens achievement in a town over 5,000 when the Garden Clubs of Mississippi, Inc. had their convention at Biloxi last week.

Those from here attending the lecture on floral design by Mrs. Zelda Wyatt Schulke, nationally known flower show leader, were Mmes. Ben Hille, Paul Miller, Dan M. Russell, jr., and Frank Hille.

BWGC was responsible for the decoration of tables and favors at the luncheon last Thursday. A scale model of the Saturn V rocket was placed at the speakers' table and miniature rockets and pralines were given each person. Small corsages of spring flowers formed the centerpiece, and were worn afterwards. Going from here were Mmes. Ben Hille, C.R. Beyer, Herbert Baron and Ivan Bradford.

Note pages

The Capdepons had as weekend guests daughter Gladys and son-in-law Lamar Bassett of Pascagoula.

Everly (Mrs. Charles) Cox was surprised at an impromptu diaper shower when she arrived here from Lafayette, La. Monday, to visit her sister Lucy Baker. The affair was held at Pennie Treutel's home, and Lucy, Marie Gabriele and Gerri Detloff were the other guests.

A very happy belated birthday wish goes to little Lois Ann Favre who celebrated her eighth brithday at a party at the home of their parents Delores and Joseph Favre on Sunday, March 1[illegible]. Helping her enjoy cake and ice cream were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bernard and son and Mrs. Loretta Johnston and children.

Marion Geoffrey and Lucille Bourgeois of New Orleans visited in the Bay over the weekend.

We're told that Beat 1 supervisor Boogie Dean is not convinced that blondes have more fun, so he's gone the auburn route.

And still more get well wishes. Dot (Mrs. Merlin) Markel is reported to be doing fine after having major surgery in a Crescent City Hospital last week and Rose (Mrs. Charlie) Richard is a patient in Hancock General undergoing treatment for a back disorder.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - We're afraid to mention the first substantial symptoms of spring for fear they'll go away but all indications are present—blossoming flowers, boat-followed automobiles, people all over the seawall all weekend, even a few swimming in the Bay and the sounds of lawn mowers once again whirring all over the place plus the warm smell of freshly cut grass, better than any perfume to our cold weary nostrils.

A number of changes in the league rules for the 1965 season were approved. It was agreed to hold the maximum number of players on each team to the previous limit of 17, but the number of persons allowable on the bench was increased from 20 to 22. To cover the possibility of a ball becoming lodged in the mesh of the right-field fence, out of reach of the fielder, it was voted that such a situation would be ruled as an automatic two-base hit for the batter.

Under another new ruling teams are prohibited from signing new players after the beginning of the second round of play in the season. It was specified that softball players for each team actually on the field would be required to wear shirts of uniform style and color.

The Bay St. Louis Parks and Playgrounds Commission was asked to amend the residence requirements for player eligibility. Under the proposed new ruling each team would be permitted to sign two players from outside Hancock County and an unlimited number of players who work in the county but live elsewhere. Two limiting provisions were however tacked onto the rule. One is that the player had worked a minimum of 15 days within the county, the other, that his eligibility shall terminate one week after ceasing in county employment.

Mrs. Theo Tudury, representing the Parks and Playgrounds Commission, announced the team entrance fee had been set at $30 for this year. Monies are used to defray commission expenses for softballs. The next meeting was set for 7:30 p.m. Monday, in the Knock Knock Club, when the principal business will be the organization of the league tournament to start the season.

City's parks being readied

Floodlights on the beach, repair work on public piers, re-surfacing of city tennis courts and administration of the city's softball league are among projects being undertaken by the Parks and Playgrounds Commission.

Mrs. Theo Tudury, recreation director, said it is anticipated all work will be completed by Easter.

Public Parks and playground areas are going to receive special attention and a schedule of summer maintenance has been arranged.

"Our program this year represents a considerable improvement over anything we have done to date," said Mrs. Tudury, who continued, "we have been able to increase facilities each year and we now offer a complete range of summer fun."

B-W archers to show skill at Sunday meet

The newly organized Bay-Waveland Archers Club will commence activities with a bow and arrow shoot scheduled for 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday at Mary Ann's Gift Shop on U.S. 90. The exhibition contest will be open to the public.

The club welcomes all followers of Wilhelm Tell and anyone interested in plucking a bowstring should contact president Ed Hall at 467-7259 or secretary Bob Smith at 467-4922.

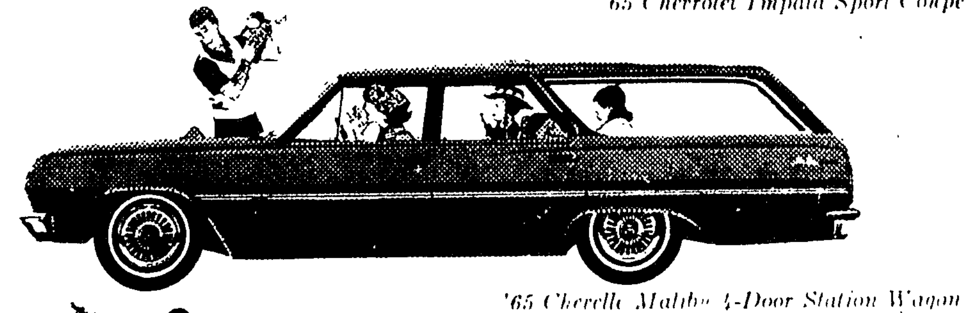
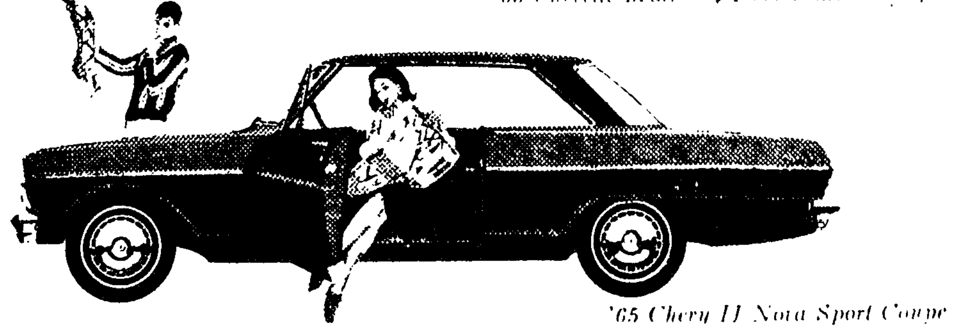
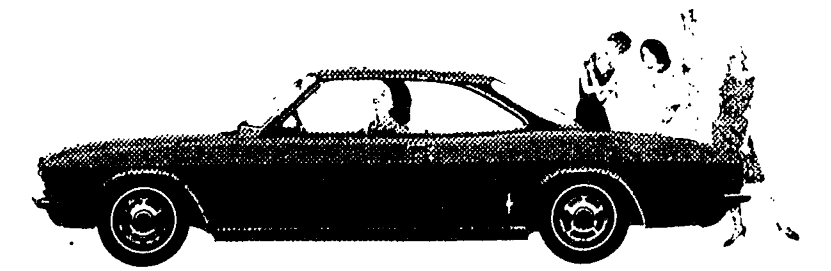
'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe



'65 Chevelle Malibu 4-Door Station Wagon



'65 Chevy II Nova Sport Coupe



'65 Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

If you've been sitting tight waiting for just your kind of car, with just your kind of power, at just your kind of price—wait no longer!

Chevrolet. It's a bigger, more beautiful car this year. Which is why that handsome silhouette could be mistaken for cars costing a thousand—even two thousand—dollars more.

Chevelle. This one's got lively looks, spirited power, a softer ride—and remarkable room atop a highly maneuverable wheelbase. No wonder it's today's favorite mid-size car.

Chevy II. No car so trim has a right to be so thrifty. But thrifty it is, with money-savers like brakes that adjust themselves and a long-lived exhaust system.

Corvair. Ask any '65 Corvair owner how it feels to drive a car with such easy steering, tenacious traction and responsive rear-engine power. And be ready to do lots of listening.
